

Brevillier's CRETACOLOR®

Cretacolor, Vienna. A Passion For Pencils.

Art Material

CRETACOLOR. A brand with tradition, passion and character.

The brand CRETACOLOR by Brevillier Urban & Sachs combines the ambition of two individualists: Carl Brevillier and Hans Wolfgang Hromatka.

1863 the industrialist Carl Brevillier founded the Zeus graphite pencil factory, which opened writing and drawing to a large audience. The wealth to do this came from industrial production of screws and rail cars. But the true passion of Carl Brevillier was the arts. Because writing supplies such as feathers or graphite pencils were – back in the days – mostly handmade, of poor quality and at the same time very expensive, his goal was to produce high quality tools for people who wanted to write or draw. This resulted in a lot of people being able to get inspired by art who couldn't afford the necessary tools until then. This was the first important step towards the evolution of the modern Brevillier pencil.

With the purchase of the „Pencil Factory Hirm“ in 1996, Hans Wolfgang Hromatka managed to combine his passion and work and at the same time prevented the shutdown and closure of the company. By the end of the 1990s the earnest collector of old pencils continued this historical brand under the name CRETACOLOR.

After that, CRETACOLOR grew to become a premium brand in high quality art material all around the world. In 2008 through the acquisition of Brevillier-Urban, the company holding the legacy of Carl Brevilliers pencil factory, Hans Wolfgang Hromatka obtained the know-how to make art materials even more efficiently. At his request, the name of Brevillier was added to the CRETACOLOR logo and through that, the company Brevillier Urban & Sachs was born.

CRETACOLOR. A brand with a sense for sustainability.

Tradition is of a high significance for CRETACOLOR. Combining sustainable production, innovative technologies and a high level of creative diversity the brand targets all artists, who prefer working with high quality art materials, which allow them to work with a wide range of different techniques in drawing, sketching and painting.

Sustainable production

Sustainability and protecting the environment are number one priorities at CRETACOLOR. More than 60 % of the energy that is being used in production comes from renewable sources, mainly wind power energy, which over the years led to the reduction of several thousand tons of CO₂ emissions at Brevillier Urban & Sachs.

Furthermore the company has a focus on using wood from sustainable forestry as well as water-based lacquering to actively push the environmental agenda even further.

Charcoal

Charcoal is distinguished by its uniform, smooth, intense black stroke. Available in three grades.

Black Pastel

Black Pastel is ideal for sketching and drawing. Use alone or mix with water and combine with Sanguine, Sepia and other pastel products. Available in a medium hardness.

Nero

Nero produces a shiny black, smudge-proof stroke. It is oil-based and, therefore, water-resistant. Available in five different grades.

White Pastel

White Pastel is excellent for combining with Charcoal, Sanguine and Sepia, and for lightening color tones. Available in two different grades.

Sanguine Oil

Sanguine oil produces a shiny, smudge-proof stroke. Due to its waxy components, it is water-resistant. Available in medium grade.

Sanguine Dry

Sanguine dry is a traditional medium for sketching and drawing. It produces a dry, blendable red/brown terracotta color. Recommended especially for combining with Pastels and Charcoal. Available in medium grade.

Sepia Light and Dark

Sepia light and dark lend themselves very well for combining with Pastels and Charcoal. Available in medium grade.

Darkening Pencil

The soft-leaded Thunder Pencil is for darkening, for creating dramatic shading and for enhancing dark areas.

Lightning Pencil
